Madrigals Singers, the only capella choir, also performed many times throughout the year. They entertained Senior Citizens at the YMCA and sang in both the Christmas and Midwinter concerts. The Concert Choir, Treble Clef, and Mixed Chorus groups were kept very busy preparing for concerts in October, December, February, March, and May. Many Choir students took selections to local contest held in Union Grove.

The Badger Band again made the football games more enjoyable and the parades more outstanding. Nearly every halftime, the band and pompon squad performed for the badger fans. The Christmas parade was full of the spirit of the season as the band welcomed Santa to Lake Geneva. The band was led by drum major Basil Ru-dawski and directed by Mr. Ron Krause. The Jazz Band was granted permission to go to Florida to play and represent Badger at a Jazz Tournament. After many months of fundraisers, they spent an eventful five days in sunny Florida.

STRING ORCHESTRA: The string orchestra's main emphasis this year was on their trip to Bowling Green, Kentucky, where the University of Western Kentucky had invited them to show off the development of a string program. The executive committee consisting of Pam Smith-president, Brian Prystalski-vice president, Jeannie Wichman-secretary, and Ellen Dare-treasure, helped organize and run the money raising activities and other orchestra activities.

This was the second year of the Pops String Ensemble which consists of the strings with the addition of piano, drum and electric bass. The Pops Strings played at the State Fair and also at the solo-ensemble contest.

Bach Group is a chamber ensemble which specializes in doing classical and baroque music. One of the selections they performed was the Christmas Concerto VII by Arcangelocorelli which they took to contest. Bach Group has had many performances including a banquet in Burlington, a Laides Club meeting and for a Methodist church group. The Orchestra is a young and growing group which will lose only five members to graduation. Everyone looks forward to the years to come.

If you wish upon a star,
You're told it takes you very far.
If you dream it will come true,
You know what that'll do to you.
If you think a thought or two,
It'll make a man or woman out of you.
If you wish for something good,
You know it won't come true, but I wish it would!

If you dream a dream so real,
To beg, borrow, love or steal.
If you think this is the end,
It's not, you just lost a friend.
If words could say what feelings show,
You would learn and you would grow.
If I could make just one wish come true,

That wish would be to see you.
Your laugh, your smile, your walk and talk.

Your voice, your friendship and your love.

But all that I wish for, all that I see
Will never bring you back to me.
